Preparing for your Pilates Class

1. Mats are provided at the Studio but you will need to bring your own mat to classes at other locations.
2. Please wear stretchy clothing e.g. leggings, yoga or sweat pants and for everyone's comfort, a LONG t-shirt.
3. Fresh socks are essential for all Studio classes. If you're using your own mat, you are welcome to go barefoot.
4. A big meal or drink is not recommended before your class.
5. If you are having a Reformer lesson, please do not wear anything with a zip as it can damage the equipment. You will also need to take off all jewellery. Completely smooth finger rings are the only exception.

Mats and non slip socks: A mat at least 10mm thick is recommended for Pilates. "Yoga toe socks" can be bought on eBay and I sometimes have a few pairs. Make sure they have non slip dots on the soles!

Exercising Safely

1. Please let me know at the start of each class if you have any recent injuries, aches and pains or illnesses.... E.g. a sore neck or back..
2. If at any stage you experience sharp pain while exercising, you should always stop immediately! However, it's our job to help you work your muscles & create new movement habits, so you will probably experience some muscle aches during your class (or 1-2 days after). Breathe deeply! Persevere! It will be easier next time 😊
3. Please have a drink of water as soon as possible after finishing your class. Even if you don't feel thirsty.

Injuries, Joint or Mobility Issues? At least one Private Lesson is usually recommended prior to joining a group class. Please let me know in advance so we can discuss it and advise accordingly.

It's Hands-On I do my best to explain verbally and to demonstrate but sometimes it's just easier and safer to gently adjust you using touch. Please let me know, if you'd rather I didn't!

Booking & Payments Group classes are booked online. To encourage you to attend regularly, a discount is offered for booking multiple classes.

Cancellation Policy – You can reschedule your group class up to 12hrs beforehand via the online booking system. For Private lessons, please provide 24hrs notice. A full cancellation fee applies for cancellations with less notice.

Photos & Videos Photos & videos are occasionally taken during classes for education & marketing purposes. They are usually taken at an angle that doesn't clearly show anyone's face. Zoom classes are recorded but only the Teacher view is shared in Replay Links.

All clear? I look forward to seeing you at class and helping you develop a stronger, more flexible body. Let me know if you'd like a private assessment first!
